To his Grace WILLIAM Duke of DEVONSHIRE Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The Humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE his Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, humbly beg Leave, before an End be put to this Session, to express our sincere and unanimous Satisfaction in your Grace's wife and prudent Administration, which has fully answered our well grounded Expectations.

The Power and Authority your Grace is vested with, has been so temper'd with Candour and Condescension; that the Duty of his Majesty's Subjects is warmed into Affection, and their Obedience into Gratitude.

From our Experience of your Grace's unwearied Endeavours to advance the Welfare of our Country, we are firmly persuaded, that you will continue to recommend us to the Protection of the Throne, and that you will represent us to his Majesty as no less attached to his Royal Person, and zealous to maintain the Dignity of his Crown, than to promote the Happiness of his People.

And thereupon his Grace was pleased to return the following Answer.

I thank the House of Commons for this very obliging Address. The best Return I can make for such a Mark of your Esteem, is to continue my Endeavours for the Prosperity of Ireland, and faithfully to represent to his Majesty the Excellence I have had of your ready Concurrence to maintain the Dignity of his Majesty's Crown, and to promote the Welfare of his People.

At the Prorogation of the Parliament, his Grace was pleased to make a Speech to both Houses, which is as followeth:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have, with great Satisfaction, given his Majesty's Royal Assent to the several Laws prepared by you during the Course of this Session, and hope they will very much promote the general Good of this Kingdom, and thereby answer the Gracious Intentions of his Majesty, who hath always in View the true Interest of his People.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have his Majesty's Commands to thank you for the Readiness and Unanimity, you have shewn in granting the usual Supplies, which shall be laid out for the Service of the Publick with all possible Frugality.

The Law now pass'd to prevent the pernicious Practice of running Goods cannot fail, when fully executed, of having a good Effect, as well with Regard to the due Collection and Increase of the Revenue, as to the Encouragement of the fair Trader.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have nothing in particular to recommend to you on your Return to your several Countries, being well satisfied that you will in your respective Stations, put the Laws strictly and impartially in Execution, encourage an hearty Union among Protestants, and disown and punish Prophanes and Immorality. I need not mention to you, that your maintaining the Dignity of the Crown and a due Submission to the Magistrate will be the surest Means to preserve the publick Peace and Tranquillity.

I am very glad my sincere Intentions to serve this Kingdom have proved acceptable to both Houses. The obliging Notice you have taken of my Conduct will greatly encourage me to pursue the same Methods and use the same Endeavours I have hitherto done for advancing the Welfare and Happiness of this Nation: And I assure you, that on my Return into his Royal Presence, I will faithfully report to his Majesty the many Instances you have given of your Loyalty and Affection to his Person and Government.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES

PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employ'd his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a sovereign Elixir, peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprizing Success, even so as infallibly to cure it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders: he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that for those labouring under these miserable Ailments, might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure. (a few Doses of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only, demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients find all Numbness, Deadness, and Shaking, or Revolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more; and thus though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard Drunking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wished for in Nervous Cures, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and replenishes the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralytick Disorders and Nervous Decay suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.
